THE 1959 EAGLE

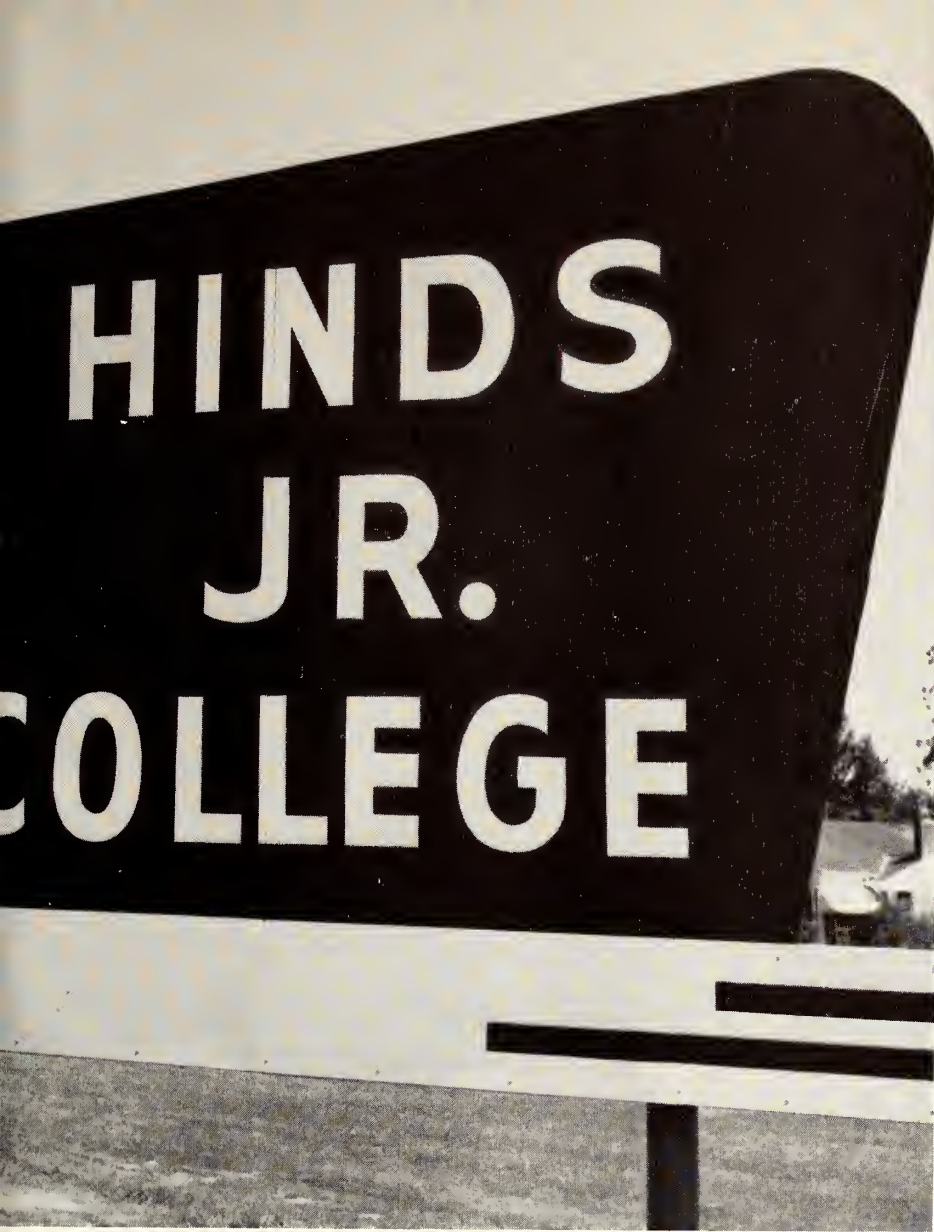

HINDS JUNIOR COLLEGE
RAYMOND, MISSISSIPPI

Circle K Royalty

See why we like Hinds?

Root, root, root for the girls' team!

Careful now! Let's get this just right.

But we spend all our time studying!

Quit pinching my straw, Phyllis!

Three cool cats . . .

Hey Man! Do you see that . . .

Hello, Jim!

IN MEMORIAM

(The following tribute, written by Sara Webb, appeared in "THE HINDSONIAN," January 7, 1959.)

In the misty rain of morning, in a spot blanketed by flowers, Virginia Ann Owen was quietly laid to rest in the Edwards cemetery, last Wednesday.

She left us at the dawn of a new day, and in the very morning of her life. The vacant chair beside us in our classes is a painful reminder that she is gone. However, let us not say she is gone, for she will live forever in our hearts.

We will not soon forget the particular way that she led the line of Hi-Steppers on the field, or her radiance at the Circle K Christmas dance, or the funny way she was dressed on Freshman Day, or how pleased she was over an inexpensive birthday gift at a small party in Westside Dormitory honoring her eighteenth birthday only three short weeks before her death.

Some of these images may fade with time, but we will always have the warmth of her beautiful smile and the radiance of her wonderful personality locked in our hearts; and we will never, never escape the strong Christian influence that she exerted upon our lives.

*"That such have died enable us
The tranquiller to die.
That such have lived, certificate
For immortality."*

Ready, Peck!

Yes, Come right in!

... And then there's this one, Mrs. Harris ...

FACULTY

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Fear and Danger—

The shadow cast across our campus in the death of one of our most charming coeds gives us reason to pause and consider the future we so blithely meet, so little knowing the joys or dangers that lie ahead. How ironic that many dangers we anticipate with fear and dread now pass and many gay trips we start with joy and end in tragedy! Our hope can be that we will be given the wisdom to recognize the path to dangers and the road to safety, but in any case to travel as Virginia did—with loving happiness.
